Beverly Hills Resident, Holocaust Survivor Rose Toren Turns 90

By Matt Lopez

Rose Toren, a Holocaust survivor and Beverly Hills resident, celebrated her 90th birthday Wednesday at The Peninsula Beverly Hills.

Toren is the mother of Vice

Mayor Lili Bosse.

Toren came to America decades ago after surviving the infamous Auschwitz Death March.

BIRTHDAY

She was born in Poland, and met her husband, and Lili Bosse's father, Jack Toren in Israel. After the war, the couple moved to the United States.

Toren has penned two books about her experience in Auschwitz named Destiny and A New Beginning. She has traveled to various schools to speak about her experience and gave a testimony to filmmaker Steven Spielberg Shoah Foundation.

In honor of her mother's 90th birthday, Lili and her husband Jon Bosse donated $100,000 to the Simon Wiesenthal Center for their Moriah Films division. In perpetuity, the name Rose Orenstein Toren will be a part of the film credits for all documentaries the center produces.

Toren enjoys reading in her free time and speaks seven different languages.
